FEB 7 1891

Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen:-

We have sent you several pamphlets on some of the fine Paintings, which we have been having this fall, but have not yet had the pleasure of your visit.

Several of the pictures we received are now sold, among which the fine Rubens of the collection of ~~the~~ President Thiers, and the "Portrait of an old Woman" by Rembrandt from the Narischkine and Demidoff Collections.

We have now received several new pictures, including some more famous works by the Old Masters and some examples of the best quality by the Modern School.

I think it would be worth while for you to come in our galleries, as we have in the opinion of every connoisseur the best collection of Paintings, that has ever been imported.

I wish you would put this matter before the eyes of your purchasing Committee; I should be very pleased to have the visit of any of the Members of that Committee.

As you know we have been selling the greater part of the Demidoff Collection last summer to the Art Institute of Chicago, and the twenty remarkable pictures by the Old Masters, which they now have, makes the Art Institute of Chicago the finest Museum in America for the quality of the works. Those pictures that they have are known all over the world and have been so much appreciated in Chicago, that they have suggested to many amateurs to form collections for themselves, when they had never thought of it before.

Hoping you will consider this matter, I remain,

Yours very truly,

Durand-Ruel

paintings, but nothing to specially recommend*

Dear Sir:

During my travels, I have come across a "Troyon" which is the mate to the 2nd picture of "Troyon" in the 2nd volume of the Secretan Collection, it was purchased at the same time that M. Secretan bought his two pictures, and within six weeks before the time of Troyon's death.

If you would like to know more about it kindly let me know. It can be bought at a reasonable price.

Address me to the above where I shall be for a few days.

Tell Miss Graham the address of Mrs Percy

Louise Home -

14th Feb 1891

I am obliged to Mr Barbarin for his communication. I have wanted to know Mrs Percy's address for some time so as to write for a valuable porcelaine she begged me to lend her - and said she would return it soon - As regards the Crayon she told me she would be glad to make it for me if I could introduce her to Mr Lacoraa I gave her money to buy the materials & the frame - I then placed it here for a time and asked Mr Lacoraa to let it be placed at the gallery for a time thinking it would benefit Mrs Percy - As soon as I get her address I will write to her & if she returns me the porcelaine I will send her the Crayon of Mr Lacoraa - I fear she is an unprincipled woman - please send me the address by my little niece - I knew Mr Barbarin a good deal at Wick Point once at our home in America Co. who married & lived in Georgetown
